THE NIGHT OF THE DECREE (LAYLAT AL-QADR)

Dear brothers and sisters! According to a hadith, our beloved Prophet ﷺ said the following: “Whoever spends Laylat al-Qadr in faith and hopes for a reward [from Allah], all his past sins will be forgiven for him.”¹ By the will of Allah, next Monday on Tuesday we will reach the Laylat al-Qadr. This night is so valuable because the Book of Allah began to descend this night. The Qur’ān illuminates the path of man and takes them out of the darkness of oppression and ignorance. The Qur’ān is a guidance to mankind, a healing and light to the hearts. We can only revive this night as long as we know its value and the value of the Qur’ān. So let’s connect our minds and hearts with the Qur’ān. Let’s read the Qur’ān more, make an effort to understand it, and try to apply it in our lives. Let’s consider Laylat al-Qadr as an opportunity to account and ask for the forgiveness for our sins.
