بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ
وَوَصَّيْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ بِوَالِدَيْهِ حَمَلَتْهُ أُمُّهُ وَهْنًا عَلَى وَهْنٍ
وَفِصَالُهُ فِي عَامَيْنِ أَنْ اشْكُرْ لِي وَلِوَالِدَيْكَ إِلَيَّ الْمَصِيرُ.
قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ:
رَضِيَ الرَّبُّ فِي رَضَى الْوَالِدِ، وَسَخَطُ الرَّبِّ فِي سَخَطِ
الْوَالِدِ.

THE RIGHTS OF THE PARENTS

Dear brothers and sisters, the Prophet ﷺ said: “The pleasure of Allah depends on the satisfaction of the parents, and the anger of Allah depends on the anger of the parents.”¹ Now, let's ask ourselves the following questions: do we see doing good to our parents as a requirement to be a good Muslim? Do we do our best to gain their satisfaction and make them happy? Can we make our parents feel the warmth and peace of the family? Do we go out of our way to visit them? Or do we exclude them from our attention and love? Dear Muslims, let us try to make them happy and get their blessings. Let us regard obtaining the satisfaction of our parents as the greatest happiness. Let us never withhold kindness, smiling faces and respect from our parents.
