بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ
وُنَزِّلُ مِنَ الْقُرْآنِ مَا هُوَ شِفَاءٌ وَرَحْمَةٌ لِّلْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَلَا يَرْيَدُ
الظَّالِمِينَ إِلَّا خَسَارًا.
قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ:
إِذَا مَاتَ ابْنُ آدَمَ انْقَطَعَ عَمَلُهُ إِلَّا مِنْ ثَلَاثٍ: صَدَقَةٌ جَارِيَةٌ أَوْ
عِلْمٌ يُنْتَفَعُ بِهِ ، أَوْ وَلَدٌ صَالِحٌ يَدْعُو لَهُ.

THE VIRTUE OF MOSQUE EDUCATION AND LEARNING THE QUR'ĀN

Dear brothers and sisters, the Qur'ān is not just any book; it is the ultimate guidance from Allah ﷻ, the eternal salvation, a mercy for the believers, and a healing for the hearts. It illuminates our path, leads us to perfection, and brings us closer to our Creator. However, as Muslims, we must pass on this knowledge to the next generations. Their education begins with learning the Qur'ān and understanding the Islamic identity. Dear Muslims, with this purpose, our mosque lessons are continuing. Let us send our children with enthusiasm so that they may grow up with the beauty of Islam. By teaching them to perform the ṣalāt, to speak good words, and to show respect, we earn the satisfaction of Allah ﷻ and open the doors to eternal reward.
