IKHLĀṢ: SINCERITY AND HONESTY

Dear brothers and sisters, Islam teaches us that all our actions should be directed towards the pleasure of Allah ﷻ. Sincerity means that our inner and outer selves are in harmony, leaving no room for hypocrisy, envy, or egoism. In this modern age, where technology and material interests often replace sincere human relationships, we must remain cautious and strive for moral purity. We live in a time where Islamic and human values are disappearing, and we are at risk of losing ourselves in worldly affairs. Dear Muslims, let us seek sincerity and devotion in all our actions, expecting no worldly benefits and doing everything solely for the sake of Allah ﷻ.
