

Date: 13-12-2024 (simplified summary)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ
مَنْ عَمِلَ صَالِحًا فَلِنَفْسِهِ وَمَنْ أَسَاءَ فَعَلَيْهَا ثُمَّ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكُمْ
تُرْجَعُونَ.

قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ:
بَادِرُوا بِالْأَعْمَالِ فِتْنًا كَقَطْعِ اللَّيْلِ الْمُظْلِمِ، يُصْبِحُ الرَّجُلُ
مُؤْمِنًا وَيُمْسِي كَافِرًا، أَوْ يُمْسِي مُؤْمِنًا وَيُصْبِحُ كَافِرًا، يَبِيعُ
دِينَهُ بَعَرَضٍ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا.

GOOD WORKS

Dear brothers and sisters, man was created to worship Allah ﷻ and to attain eternal happiness through faith and good deeds. Islam rests on three fundamental pillars: faith (al-īmān), actions (al-a'māl), and morals (al-akblāq). Faith begins in the heart, is strengthened through worship, and is reflected in good character and conduct. A truly pious Muslim embodies the love of faith, wisdom, devotion in worship, and excellence in fellowship with others. Dear Muslims, let us reflect and ask ourselves: How do we spend our time? Do we act in accordance with the knowledge we possess? How do we earn and spend our wealth? Are we performing the good deeds that Allah ﷻ has commanded us to do? May Allah ﷻ guide us to engage in righteous actions that earn His pleasure. Āmīn.