بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ
مَا يَلْفِظُ مِنْ قَوْلٍ إِلَّا لَدَيْهِ رَقِيبٌ عَتِيدٌ.
قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ:
أَمْسِكْ عَلَيْكَ لِسَانَكَ وَلْيَسَعَكَ بَيْتُكَ وَابْنُكَ عَلَى

THE ETHICS OF SPEECH

Dear brothers and sisters, Allah ﷻ has given us the ability to speak. This is a great blessing and responsibility. Our words should be truthful, wise, and respectful. With our tongues, we can remember Allah ﷻ, promote goodness, and support others. However, wrong words can cause much harm, both in this life and in the Hereafter. Therefore, let us think before we speak. Dear Muslims, avoid lies, gossip, and hurtful language. Treat others with respect, both in our words and gestures. Use your tongue to spread peace, justice, and kindness. May Allah ﷻ help us to control our tongues and speak good words, so that we may earn His pleasure and mercy. Āmīn.
