بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ
قُلْ إِنِّي أُمِرْتُ أَنْ أَعْبُدَ اللَّهَ مُخْلِصًا لَهُ الدِّينَ.
قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ:
إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَقْبَلُ مِنَ الْعَمَلِ إِلَّا مَا كَانَ لَهُ خَالِصًا وَابْتُغَى
بِهِ وَجْهُهُ.

SINCERITY AND PURITY

Dear brothers and sisters, Islam teaches us to purify our intentions and make our deeds valuable. Sincerity means performing our ibāda only for Allah ﷻ. Purity means that our hearts and our actions are in harmony. Dear Muslims, the stronger our love and devotion to Allah ﷻ, the deeper our sincerity. A Muslim keeps no hatred in the heart, speaks no lies, and does not act for show. Therefore, always examine your intention. Dear believers, strive to perform your deeds solely for the sake of Allah ﷻ. Even a small deed can be great if it is sincere. May Allah ﷻ make us among His servants with pure hearts and sincere intentions. Āmīn.
