

Date: 12-09-2025 (simplified summary)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ
كِتَابُ أَنْزَلْنَاهُ إِلَيْكَ مُبَارَكٌ لِيَدَّبَّرُوا آيَاتِهِ وَلِيَتَذَكَّرَ أُولُوا
الْأَلْبَابِ.

قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ:
مَا نَحَلَّ وَالِدٌ وَلَدًا مِنْ نَحْلٍ أَفْضَلَ مِنْ أَدَبٍ حَسَنٍ.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION AND THE VALUE OF LEARNING THE QUR'ĀN

Dear brothers and sisters, the Qur'ān is our guidance, inviting us to reflection and action. That is why our children are central. In mosques affiliated with ISN, they learn the Qur'ān and the basics of Islam; there they grow in īmān, ilm, and adab. In this way, today shapes what will sustain our community and the umma tomorrow. Dear Muslims, parents have a crucial role. Show your involvement: ask what your child learned, review homework together, read from the Qur'ān together, and listen together to a du'ā' or sūra. In doing so, children deepen their bond with the mosque and make learning a beautiful habit. O Allah ﷻ, grant our children understanding of the Qur'ān and our teachers ḥikma. Make our homes places of īmān, rahma, and good akhlāq. Āmīn.