بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ
إِنَّ الصَّلَاةَ كَانَتْ عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ كِتَابًا مَوْقُوتًا.
قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ:
الصَّلَاةُ عِمَادُ الدِّينِ، مَنْ أَقَامَهَا فَقَدْ أَقَامَ الدِّينَ، وَمَنْ
هَدَمَهَا فَقَدْ هَدَمَ الدِّينَ.

THE PILLAR OF THE RELIGION: THE ṢALĀT

Dear brothers and sisters, the ṣalāt connects us to Allah ﷻ. It purifies the heart, brings harmony, and keeps away from evil. The ṣalāt gives direction to the day: from early morning into the night. Each adhān invites us to stand, bow, and kneel with humility and concentration. Dear Muslims, whoever safeguards his ṣalāt, safeguards his īmān. Therefore let our homes and mosques be filled with ṣalāt. Teach it to our children and support one another in persistence. Dear believers, perform the ṣalāt on time, with devotion. The Prophet ﷺ said: “The ṣalāt is the pillar of the religion.”¹ May Allah ﷻ make us steadfast and accept the ṣalāt that we perform. Āmīn.
